STUDY IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

SFU'S SEGAL GRADUATE SCHOOL

SFU Beedie's FT MBA program takes place at SFU's Segal Graduate School in the heart of downtown Vancouver. The 60,000 sq. ft. space boasts state-of-the-art classroom and meeting room facilities. The campus's central location makes commuting easy and helps integrate you into the local business community while also providing easy access to Vancouver's dining and entertainment scene for after-class socials.

YOUR NEW HOME: THE CHARLES CHANG INNOVATION CENTRE

SFU Beedie MBA students enjoy priority access to SFU's apartment-style downtown Vancouver residence. This residence allows our graduate students to be fully immersed in the Vancouver lifestyle as it is conveniently located within walking distance from the campus and offers diverse options for transportation, restaurants, grocery stores, and shopping.

The Charles Chang Innovation Centre was opened in 2016 and houses the student residences as well as SFU's Charles Chang Institute for Entrepreneurship. The Innovation Centre is also home to SFU's RADIUS Social Innovation Lab and Venture Incubator.

SFU's Beedie School of Business respectfully acknowledges the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), səliłwətaʔ (Tsleil-Waututh) peoples on whose unceded traditional territories our SFU campus resides.

THE DOWNTOWN VANCOUVER ADVANTAGE

Business leaders from all over the world aim to live in Vancouver, a city that fosters innovation, economic development, and sustainability. Challenge yourself to engage positively and meaningfully with the Vancouver community and foster your adventurous spirit while nurturing your personal and professional growth.

THE CENTRE OF BUSINESS AND INNOVATION

Vancouver is a gateway to the Asia-Pacific region and a centre for entrepreneurship in Canada and North America. The dynamic and supportive local business community has established Vancouver as Canada's tech startup hub, enticing Boeing, Facebook, Amazon, Microsoft, and more global enterprises to set up local offices as well as global conferences, such as the world-renowned TED Conference.

LIFE IN VANCOUVER

Surrounded by a stunning backdrop of mountains, forests, and oceans, Vancouver offers world-class outdoor activities all year round in one of the world's most beautiful cities. Whether you want to go hiking in the North Shore mountains, kayaking in False Creek, or paddle boarding in Whistler, Vancouver offers you endless breathtaking views and opportunities to participate in a variety of outdoor activities and sports. Vancouver has one of the most temperate climates in Canada, so you will have plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoors and cultivate a healthy and active lifestyle.

With an incredible diversity of cultures, Vancouver is one of Canada's most vibrant and energizing cities. Ranked the third most livable city in the world, there are endless activities to experience in the city, from concerts and sports games at BC Place and Rogers Arena to biking around Stanley Park on the seawall. A city filled with arts and culture, Vancouver is home to the Vancouver Art Gallery and the Vancouver International Film Festival.

Watch now: FT MBA Alumnus, Renee Rivers shares her experience moving to Vancouver, Canada to pursue the MBA program.

"My favourite part of the MBA was getting the opportunity to apply our classroom knowledge to consulting projects for companies like Rocky Mountaineer, HSBC, and Quadreal. These unique experiences were opportunities to test out theoretical frameworks in real-life scenarios through a safe and constructive approach to learning."

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

THE INTERNATIONAL APPLIED PROJECT

The MBA International Applied Project is a highlight of SFU Beedie's FT MBA program. You will expand upon the knowledge and skills gained from the MBA curriculum and apply your toolkit outside of the classroom. Carefully selected international settings allow for global perspectives on business and a broader comprehension of working in multicultural environments. You will gain valuable insights through integrated coursework, seminars, company visits, and cultural experiences, culminating in an applied consulting-style deliverable presented to a corporate partner.

CAPSTONE

This course consists of a comprehensive strategy simulation called CAPSIM. CAPSIM is used in leading business schools around the world to teach and evaluate students on business strategy. Students will have the opportunity to run a company in a competitive industry along with a group of classmates while integrating skills learned in other classes into business decisions.

"The MBA international applied project was one of the highlights of the MBA program. The relationships I built with the companies, professors, alumni, and my cohort have allowed me to expand my understanding of the global marketplace."

– Ruby Chang,

FT MBA Alumnus, Consultant, CGI

PUT YOUR KNOWLEDGE INTO PRACTICE

Maximize your MBA experience through work experience. At the end of the 12 months' academic programming, you will have three options to apply what you have learned in a real-world setting. ENRICH YOUR LEARNING

THIS IS A YEAR TO REMEMBER

SFU Beedie has a well-earned reputation for supporting and encouraging students to explore co-curricular activities to support their learning. We see case competitions, the MBA Games, conferences, and other events as ways to uncover different leadership opportunities, hone your business skills, and tap into a vibrant network of industry leaders. After all, what you learn in the classroom could change your thinking, but what you learn outside the classroom could change your life.

STUDENT CLUBS

Your education goes beyond the classroom. Join a club to develop leadership, team-building and management skills, and expand your networking circles.

The Graduate Business Student Association plays an active role in the leadership of our school. From providing curriculum feedback to hosting social and educational events, this student leadership team works to continuously improve the SFU Beedie student experience.

Net Impact is dedicated to sustainability and empowering students to become responsible business leaders. This student leadership team makes a positive environmental, social, and economic impact by organizing events connecting with sustainability-focused industry experts, including the signature Net Impact Sustainability Challenge case competition.

The Graduate Women's Council strives to empower women to lead and succeed in the workplace. This active student leadership team provides networking opportunities, workshops, and access to external events aimed at developing and sustaining a culture of support and encouragement.

The JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity & Inclusion) Council fosters a learning environment where all students feel welcome, safe, accepted, and appreciated through events, workshops, and activities to raise awareness and build a sense of community.

THE MBA GAMES

The MBA Games is the largest gathering of MBA students in Canada. Each year, up to 40 SFU Beedie MBA students are selected to compete in academic, sports, and spirit competitions against top business schools across the country.

CASE COMPETITIONS

Apply classroom theories to real-world business challenges while gaining the confidence and skills to make decisions and recommendations under pressure. With a dedicated

My co-curricular involvement allowed me to have a holistic educational experience, expand my knowledge, and put in practice several of the soft skills reinforced in the program. Participating in case competitions enhanced my problem solving and strategic thinking skills, and they let me apply some of the business frameworks learned in the classroom. The opportunity to lead the Net Impact chapter allowed me to become a better leader and teammate, while also gaining significant knowledge around sustainability issues. NOTABLE ALUMNI

Morenike Akinyemi was looking for greater career mobility. After spending two years working as a clinical pharmacist at various Nigerian hospitals and pharmacies, she travelled over 10,000 km to Vancouver from her home in Nigeria to take her career to the next level. Morenike chose SFU Beedie's FT MBA to develop a business management toolkit to complement her strong clinical skills and to successfully transition from patient care to the business strategy side of the healthcare industry. Today she leverages her MBA skills, strategic mindset, and network at Canada Health Infoway.

MORENIKE AKINYEMI

LEAD PROJECT MANAGER, VIRTUAL CARE PROGRAMS AT CANADA HEALTH INFOWAY

"I always saw myself working beyond clinical pharmacy. I felt that I could also shine on the business side of healthcare. I knew that with my strong clinical training, an MBA would help open doors and give me the mobility I was looking for in my career."

PHIL VANLAAR

DIRECTOR, STRATEGIC INITIATIVES AT SUMMIT EARTHWORKS INC.

"I wanted to make a career change. I knew that if I invested in myself with an MBA that it would give me the mobility I was looking for to pivot successfully into a new career."

Phil VanLaar felt it was time to invest in himself. After spending eight years working as a civil engineer at several top Canadian engineering firms, he was looking to switch gears into another industry and shift into upper management. Phil chose SFU Beedie's FT MBA to develop a business management skill set to complement his robust technical experience as well as to broaden his professional connections beyond the civil engineering and construction industry. Today, Phil is using his MBA skills in a new career working as the Director, Strategic Initiatives at Summit Earthworks Inc.

JOIN THE BEEDIE ALUMNI COMMUNITY

As an SFU Beedie student and future alumnus, you are already a member of an exceptional community made up of over 30,000 SFU Beedie alumni working in diverse industries and organizations across the globe. BECOME AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT

INTERNATIONAL SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Moving to a new country can be a daunting experience. To support our international students with this transition, students can book a free in-person, phone, or virtual appointment with an International Student Advisor, Immigration Specialist at SFU International Services for Students. International Student Advisors can assist with non-academic questions relating to Canadian immigration documents and regulations (e.g. study permit, visa, work eligibility in Canada, enrollment requirements for SFU international students, and more), medical insurance and the healthcare system in Canada, and provide intercultural transition support and referrals as needed.

POST-GRADUATION WORK PERMIT

At the culmination of the program, successful graduates can leverage the opportunity to apply for a post-graduate work permit of up to three years to live and work in Canada. As you enter the next phase of your career journey, you will be able to integrate all of the experiential opportunities, applied projects, and course concepts that you have learned over the past 16 months. You will be ready to enter the Canadian workforce with a better understanding of business and its effects on the local and global economy. This is the next step in advancing your career and further developing yourself as a socially-minded and responsible business leader.
